

boat so that it was almost swamped. But he was in the stern, his head on the cushion, asleep. They woke him and said to him, 'Master, do you not care? We are going down!' And he woke up and rebuked the wind and said to the sea, 'Quiet now! Be calm!' And the wind dropped, and all was calm again. Then he said to them, 'Why are you so frightened? How is it that you have no faith?' They were filled with awe and said to one another, 'Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.'

Leaving a Legacy

Once you have made provision for your loved ones, you have the opportunity to make a lasting gift to God, by leaving a legacy to His church. Leaving a gift in your Will to All Saints' is one of the most valuable and lasting ways you can continue to support the mission and ministry in your community.

Making a Difference

For many churches, regular giving is absorbed in 'keeping the show on the road'. This usually involves everyday activities such as paying the parish share, insuring and heating the building, repairing the roof etc.

A gift from your estate is different. All Saints' has a legacy policy stating that they will not use legacy gifts for everyday expenditure; the PCC will spend your gift on a special project to make a difference.

For example, a gift in your Will could support our ministry to young people, refurbish the upstairs kitchen, support an overseas mission partner, help to reorder the church, preserve the historic church bell or equip the church with new hymn books.

No matter how large or small, each gift can make a significant impact on our mission and ministry, and maintaining our spiritual heritage.

Please consider how a gift in your Will could help the Church meet the needs of future generations.

For more information please speak to David Dickinson

Welcome to All Saints' Parish Church

Today we welcome the Fr Michael Matthews
as our president and preacher at the 10am Eucharist

Welcomers:

Steve Adamson & Kellie Rose

Reader: Caroline Ball

Intercessor: Paul Dawson

Hymns

Introit: 369

Offertory: 54

Communion:

Post communion: 530

5.30pm - Evensong

Psalm: 49

Coming up this week

Tuesday at 11am - Zoom Eucharist

Thursday at 7pm - Zoom Prayer Group

Saturday at 11am - Zoom Pop-in, Cuppa and Company

Today we pray for:

those with birthdays: Gill Appleby & Molly Nightingale (17)

the sick: Sandra Gait, Mary Chapman, Norma Hall & Ann Dickinson

the departed: Ray Wright & Jennifer Moor-Radford

the anniversaries of death of: Sidney Savage, Rowland Cousins, Doris Featherby, Edith Benton, George Chapman & Marjorie Warrington

First Reading

Job 3: 1. 8-11

Theme: Here your proud waves shall break.

From the heart of the tempest the Lord gave Job his answer. He said: Who pent up the sea behind closed doors when it leapt tumultuous out of the womb, when I wrapped it in a robe of mist and made black clouds its swaddling bands; when I marked the bounds it was not to cross and made it fast with a bolted gate? Come thus far, I said, and no farther; here your proud waves shall break.

Psalm

106: 23-26. 28-31

℟ O give thanks to the Lord,
for his love endures for ever.

Some sailed to the sea in ships
to trade on the mighty waters.
These men have seen the Lord's deeds,
the wonders he does in the deep. ℟

For he spoke; he summoned the gale,
tossing the waves of the sea
up to heaven and back into the deep;
their soul melted away in distress. ℟

Then they cried to the Lord in their need and he rescued them from their distress.
He stilled the storm to a whisper;
all the waves of the sea were hushed. ℟

They rejoiced because of the calm and he led them to the haven they desired.
Let them thank the Lord for his love,
the wonders he does for men. ℟

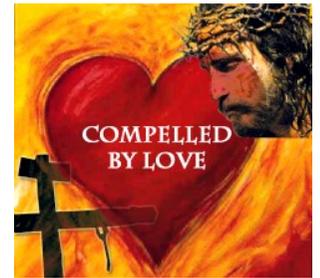

Psalm from The Psalms: a New Translation, published by HarperCollins Publishers Ltd © 1963 by the Grail (England)

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 5: 14-17

Theme: Now the new creation is here.

The love of Christ overwhelms us when we reflect that if one man has died for all, then all men should be dead; and the reason he died for all was so that living men should live no longer for themselves, but for him who died and was raised to life for them. From now onwards, therefore, we do not judge anyone by the standards of the flesh. Even if we did once know Christ in the flesh, that is not how we know him now. And for anyone who is in Christ, there is a new creation; the old creation has gone, and now the new one is here.

Scripture readings are from the Jerusalem Bible © 1966 Darton, Longman & Todd Ltd and Doubleday & Company, Inc

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ
enlighten the eyes of our mind,
so that we can see what hope his call holds for us
Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 4: 35-41

Theme: Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.

With the coming of evening, Jesus said to his disciples, 'Let us cross over the other side.' And leaving the crowd behind they took him, just as he was, in the boat; and there were other boats with him. Then it began to blow a gale and the waves were breaking into the