ALLSAINTS10 to 70470 to donate £10

ALLSAINTS20 to 70470 to donate £20

PLEASE READ THIS!

During this period of interregnum it very much a case of 'All hands on deck' to ease the load on everyone!

We are therefore looking for help with a few things:

Facebook

James has been keeping us afloat but, like most of us, he isn't able to get to all the services so we really need someone, or a couple of people, to help keep our page up to date and record services (we have a church phone for this)

Assistant Treasurer

Isobel is doing a fantastic job but really needs some help

Admin

Emily, as PCC secretary, is getting a lot of extra bits during this period so please see if you can help her in any way

Gardening

We could, at any time, have a priest or their wife/husband visit our church to 'suss' us out so we need to make sure that they are not put off before they even come through the door! Please help by doing some gardening (both around the church and at the vicarage) and pick up any litter you see

Please don't think - 'I can't do any of those things' or 'Someone else will offer' - there are plenty of other jobs that also need doing, including general maintenance & spring cleaning, and after all 'Many hands make light work'!

So please see Phil or Deirdre if you can help in any way.

Parish Bike Ride

David Dickinson and a few others are donning the lycra once again to raise funds for All Saints'. Please support them and visit their Just Giving page: <https://www.justgiving.com/crowdfunding/allsaitsbikeride2021>

First Reading

1 Kings 19: 4-8

Theme: Strengthened by the food he walked until he reached the mountain of God.

Elijah went into the wilderness, a days journey, and sitting under a furze bush wished he were dead. 'Lord' he said 'I have had enough. Take my life: I am no better than my ancestors.' Then he lay down and went to sleep. But an angel touched him and said, 'Get up and eat.' He looked round, and there at his head was a scone baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again. But the angel of the Lord came back a second time and touched him and said, 'Get up and eat, or the journey will be too long for you.' So he got up and ate and drank, and strengthened by that food he walked for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

Psalm

33: 2-9

✠ Taste and see that the Lord is good.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
his praise always on my lips;
in the Lord my soul shall make its boast.
The humble shall hear and be glad. ✠

Glorify the Lord with me.
Together let us praise his name.
I sought the Lord and he answered me;
from all my terrors he set me free. ✠

Look towards him and be radiant;
let your faces not be abashed.
This poor man called; the Lord heard him
and rescued him from all his distress. ✠

The angel of the Lord is encamped around those who revere him, to rescue them.

Taste and see that the Lord is good.
He is happy who seek refuge in him. ✠

Second Reading

Ephesians 4: 30 - 5: 2

Theme: Follow Christ by loving as he loved you.

Do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God who has marked you with his seal for you to be set free when the day comes. Never have grudges against others, or lose your temper, or raise your voice to anybody, or call each other names, or allow any sort of spitefulness. Be friends with one another, and kind, forgiving each other as readily as God forgave you in Christ. Try, then, to imitate God, as children of his that he loves, and follow Christ by loving as he loved you, giving himself up in our place as a fragrant offering and a sacrifice to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!
If anyone loves me he will keep my word,
and my Father will love him,
and we shall come to him.
Alleluia!

Gospel

John 6: 41-51

Theme: I am the living bread which has come down from heaven.

The Jews were complaining to each other about Jesus, because he had said, 'I am the bread that came down from heaven.' 'Surely this is Jesus son of Joseph' they said. 'We know his father and mother. How can he now say, "I have come down from heaven"?' Jesus said in reply, 'Stop complaining to each other. No one can come to me unless he is drawn by the Father who sent me, and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets: They will all be taught by God, and to hear the teaching of the Father, and learn from it, is to come to me. Not that anybody has seen the Father, except the one who comes from God: he has seen the Father. I tell you most solemnly, everybody who believes has eternal life. I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the desert and they are dead; but this is the bread that comes down from heaven, so that a man may eat it and not die. I am the living bread which has come down from heaven. Anyone who eats this bread will live forever; and the bread I shall give is my flesh, for the life of the world.'
